2.Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner was granted Anticipatory Bail for the offence under Section 498(A) IPC in CrI.OP.No.28728 of 2024. Further, while granting anticipatory bail, this Court directed the petitioner to appear before the respondent everyday at 6.30 p.m., for a period of two weeks and thereafter, every Saturday at 6.30 p.m., until further orders. He would further submit that the petitioner is employed in Sweden and due to the condition imposed by this Court, he is unable to get back to his work thereby, his job is at risk. Further, he would also submit that this Court has referred this matter to mediation and the settlement talks have also been initiated and the petitioner is ready to co-operate for investigation and he seeks to modify the condition imposed on him.

3.Almost regular compliance of the condition has been conceded by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side).

4.Learned counsel appearing for the intervener submitted that the petitioner is the husband of the defacto complainant. The defacto complainant filed
