2. The incarceration of the petitioner being from 24.09.2024 pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner and false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court. He also submits that the petitioner has nothing to do with the alleged offence, however, he was arrested in this case, since he has several previous cases. He further submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court.

3. The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that the accused had trespassed into the house of the de facto complainant, by breaking open the door and committed theft of 5 sovereigns of gold jewels and a cash from hundiya. He further submits that the investigation is at preliminary stage and further, nine previous cases are pending against the petitioner.

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record including the counter filed by the respondent Police and taking note of the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions and
