The petitioner, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 08.08.2025, for the offences punishable under Section 194 BNSS @ 103, 61(2), 238, 3(5) of BNS in Crime No.141 of 2025, registered on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 19.06.2025, the defacto complainant lodged a complaint before the respondent police stating that the body of the deceased was found in the railway track between the Putlur and Tiruvallur Track, hence the FIR was initially lodged by the respondent police under Section 194 of BNSS; that during the course of investigation and on verification of the last call registered in the mobile of the deceased, it is revealed that the petitioner conspired with other accused and thereby, the accused persons murdered the deceased using knife and in order to conceal the body of the deceased, the accused placed the body near the railway track.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is a lady, she has been falsely implicated in this case; that she was not aware about the intention of the other accused involved in the alleged offence and she is in custody since 08.08.2025. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and sought for bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent while opposing the bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and stated that there are totally four accused and the petitioner herein is arrayed as A2 in this case; that the petitioner herein settled in the area where the deceased was living; that the deceased demanded money from the petitioner stating, if she wants to reside there, she has to pay money to him; thereby the petitioner got enraged and informed the same with A1; that thereby A1 joining hands with other accused and murdered the deceased. He further submitted that the case is now been transferred to Sevvapet Police Station; and that the investigation is pending.

5. Considering the facts of the case, the fact that the petitioner being a lady, she was not present at the scene of occurrence and not caused
