ORDER

This petition has been filed to set aside the condition no(i) imposed in the judgement dated 09.06.2025 in Crl.M.P.No.1499 of 2025 on the file of the Learned JM-II, Chengalpet.

2. The learned counsel for petitioner would submit that he is the victim under the hands of accused, who had looted nearly about Rs.3,90,00,000/- through online bank fraud. According to the petitioner, the accused involved in online bank fraud. On believing her words, the petitioner made financial transaction nearly about Rs.3,90,00,000/- through cheque and thereafter, the petitioner came to know about the scam made by the accused. Hence, they gave a complaint, based on that, the F.I.R. was lodged and during the investigation, the respondent police had seized the accused account, however, the accused bank account was frozen along with money belongs to the petitioner. Hence, they have filed a petition for return of cash to the tune of Rs.8,12,523.47/-. On perusal of records, the trial court allowed the petition on the following conditions:-

i) the petitioner shall execute a bond for Rs.8,00,000/- along with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the court;

ii) The petitioner is directed to return the amount of Rs.8,12,523.47/- as and when directed by the court. Now, challenging the impugned conditions imposed by the trial court, the petitioner had preferred this Criminal Revision Case.

3. Learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for respondent raised objections, but admits that all those amounts made in the name of accused account was frozen by the respondent police during the investigation. However, according to the petitioner, a sum of Rs.3,90,00,000/- was cheated by the accused.

4. Considering both side submissions and on perusal of records, the fact reveals that the respondent police had frozen the amounts made in the name of accused account along with the money belongs to the petitioner during the investigation. Therefore, the petitioner is entitled for the amount, but the conditions (i) and (ii) imposed by the trial court as such is unwarranted, liable to be set aside.

5. Accordingly, this Criminal Revision Case is allowed and the conditions (i) and (ii) imposed by the trial court in Crl.M.P.No. 1499 of 2025 is set aside. However, the petitioner is entitled to receive the amount, since they have already given the undertaking affidavit before the trial court. The other conditions shall remain unaltered.
