This writ appeal has been directed against the order passed by the learned Writ Court in W.P.No.36245 of 2025 dated 19.09.2025.

2. The appellant was the writ petitioner who appeared for the NEET UG examinations and secured 119 marks. He had also submitted an application to the respondent Selection Committee under the Tamil Nadu Management Quota. However, after some time he realized that based on the said marks he may not get any selection under the said quota and it seems that he wanted to get seat under the NRI quota, for which he obtained a relationship certificate on 22.08.2025 and thereafter submitted the same on 17.09.2025.

3. However, the fact remains that the last date for making the application and uploading the documents including the relationship certificate for seeking admission under the NRI Quota was fixed as 29.06.2025. After considering all these factors, the plea raised by the appellant / writ petitioner was rejected by the learned Writ Court.

4. Though an attempt has been made by the learned counsel for the appellant to assail the order, which is impugned herein and seek for indulgence of this Court to give a direction to the respondents / admission authorities to select the appellant / writ petitioner under NRI quota for admission into first year MBBS for the academic year 2025-26, learned Special Counsel for the first respondent / Selection Committee, on instructions would submit that, insofar as the selection of NRI students are concerned, it is only upto second round of counselling NRI admissions would be made, if NRI quota seats are not filled, they are reverted back to the management seats quota and the last date even for second round of counselling was over on 30.09.2025 and we are now on 10.10.2025.

5. Learned Special Counsel for the first respondent would also submit that, insofar as the claim of the appellant for admission under NRI quota is concerned, at the time of making the application for which the last date was 29.06.2025, the application should have been made along with necessary certificates including the relationship certificate, which admittedly was secured by the petitioner only on 22.08.2025 ie., after two months of the last date prescribed in this regard. Therefore, there was every justification on the part of the learned Writ Court in rejecting the plea raised by the writ petitioner and hence no interference is called for in the impugned order, she contended.

6. We find force in the said submission of the learned Special Counsel for the first respondent, the reason being that, within the last date ie., 29.06.2025

admittedly no application had been made and no certificate seeking NRI admission by the petitioner had been uploaded. The very relationship certificate admittedly was secured on 22.08.2025 ie., well after the cut-off date ie., two months after the cut-off date. That apart, the counselling for NRI quota seats would be done only upto second round and even if there are unfilled seats, that would be reverted back to the management quota and for that the last date was fixed as 30.09.2025, which is also since over and we are on 10.10.2025, at this juncture, no indulgence can be shown from any angle by this Court.

7. Resultantly, the impugned order does not warrant any interference by this Court and the writ appeal deserves to be dismissed. It is accordingly dismissed. No costs.
