2. The case of the prosecution is that the accused due to previous enmity that originated while they were in jail, abused the de-facto complainant and assaulted him with lethal weapons and thereby, he sustained grievous injuries.

Hence, the complaint.

3. Learned counsel petitioner submitted that the petitioner name does not find place in the First Information Report and that he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is willing to abide by any condition that may be imposed by this Court. Therefore, he prays for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Per contra, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal side) appearing for the respondent police submits that the petitioner is a habitual offender, with 10 previous cases pending against him. Furthermore, he submitted that the petitioner, along with other accused was present at the scene of occurrence and caused grievous injuries to the de-facto complainant. The petitioner is arrayed as A9. The other accused A1 to A8 were arrested and are still in jail. Therefore, if the petitioner is granted anticipatory bail, there is a possibility that he will

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government

Advocate (Crl Side) for the respondent and perused the entire materials available on record.

6. This is the first application for anticipatory bail. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, as well as the petitioner's assault on the de-facto complainant, which caused grievous injuries, and he has also having 10 previous cases, and also taking note of that the co-accused were arrested and are still in jail, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

7. Accordingly, the Criminal Original Petition stands dismissed.
