ORDER

WEB COPY The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 303(2) of BNS (Corresponding Section 379 of IPC) in Crime No.340 of 2025 on the file of the respondent Police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 30.09.2025, the two wheeler of the defacto complainant bearing Registration No.TN-97-B-6296 found missing from the place where he parked, hence a complaint was lodged before the respondent police; that later on a vehicle check-up, the respondent police found the accused persons came in the said two wheeler; that on seeing the police, the petitioner herein escaped from the spot and the respondent police arrested other accused; and that upon their confession, the petitioner was arrayed as accused in this case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner was falsely implicated in this case, he has not involved in the above said offence. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court, hence sought for anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police while opposing the anticipatory bail to the petitioner reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the stolen two wheeler was recovered; that the petitioner has no previous antecedents; and that the investigation of this case is pending.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of this case, the petitioner has no previous antecedents and the stolen two wheeler has been recovered, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Polur, Tiruvannamalai District on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:
