The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 296(b), 131, 118(1) and 351(3) of BNS in Crime No.211 of 2025 on the file of the respondent Police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners on account of previous enmity, picked up a wordy quarrel with the defacto complainant; that thereby abused her using filthy language and assaulted the defacto complainant, her husband and brother-in-law's son. Hence, this case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that a false complaint has been lodged against the petitioners due to previous enmity and to avenge for personal vendetta. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court, hence sought for anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police while opposing the anticipatory bail to the petitioners reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the injured discharged from the hospital and the petitioners have no previous antecedents; and that the investigation is pending.
