2. The allegation against the petitioners is that, due to wordy quarrel between the parties, the petitioners/A2 & A3 along with A1 abused and attacked the defacto complainant with deadly weapons and caused injuries to him. Hence, the present complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and reported that there is no previous case pending against the petitioners and the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, and the submissions made by both counsel, and taking note of the fact that there is no previous case pending against the petitioners and the injured has been discharged from the hospital, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the
