2. The incarceration of the petitioner being from 11.11.2024 pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner and false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court. He submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court.

3. The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that the petitioner was found to be in illegal possession of 6 Kgs of ganja. He would submit that the petitioner has got five previous cases, therefore, if the petitioner is released on bail, there is a possibility of her absconding and not available for further investigation.

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions and accordingly, he is ordered to be released on bail on him
