2. The allegation against the petitioner is that the petitioner along with other accused were found in possession of 13.200 kgs of banned tobacco products. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the major part of the investigation is over and further submitted that earlier bail petition was dismissed by this Court.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Though the earlier bail petition was dismissed, considering the fact that the major part of the investigation is over and taking into account the period of incarceration, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions:
