3. The case of the prosecution as put forth by the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, is that the petitioner, along with the other accused, was found to be in illegal possession of 12 unsealed brandy and on checking the bottles, it was found that some poisonous substance has been added in the said bottles. He further submitted that there are eleven previous cases pending against the petitioner which are similar in nature.

4. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) for the respondent and perused the materials available on record.

5. Considering the gravity of offence committed by the accused and that the bad antecedents of the petitioner, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, at this stage. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
