2. The incarceration of the petitioner being from 02.11.2024 pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner and false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court. He further submits that the petitioner is in no way connected with the alleged offence and the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court.

3. The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that when the de facto complainant had questioned the petitioner for abusing his friend's sister, the petitioner/A1 along with A2, abused the de facto complainant and stabbed him with a screwdriver, due to which, the de facto complainant sustained injuries and later, admitted to a hospital. He further submits that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, however, taking treatment and the case is under investigation.

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions and accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand
