CrI.O.P.No.32613 of 2024

2. The incarceration of the petitioner being from 26.11.2024 pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner and false implication in the case, the learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court. He also submits that since there was a love affair between the petitioner and the defacto complainant's daughter, a false complaint has been given by her father as against the petitioner. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court. Hence, he prayed for bail.

3. The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that the petitioner had stalked the daughter of the defacto complainant continuously, and that on 25.11.2024, while the victim was at her house, the petitioner came there and locked her in her bed room and assaulted her since she had refused to give in to his demand.

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record, including the statement of the minor victim girl under Section 183 of BNSS and considering the period of incarceration
