2. The incarceration of the petitioner/A2 being from 14.11.2024 pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner and false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court. He further submits that the petitioner is in no way connected with the alleged offence, however, the respondent had foisted this case only for a statistical purpose. He also submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court.

3. The case of the prosecution as put forth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that the petitioner/A2 along with other accused had waylaid the de facto complainant and assaulted him with a beer bottle and by intimidating him, robbed a sum of Rs.29,000/- from him through Gpay. He further submits that the amount has been recovered from the accused and the case is under investigation. He also submits that three previous case are pending against the petitioner.

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner and that the robbed amount has been recovered, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions and
