2. The case of the prosecution is that on September 28, 2025, the accused obstructed the road by dumping garbage, setting it on fire, and parking two-wheelers, blocking the passage and preventing the defacto complainant from reaching her home. When the complainant and her husband requested the accused to move the vehicles, the accused abused and assaulted the defacto complainant's husband and sister Gnanasundari with a knife. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submits that the petitioner has been suffering incarceration from 29.09.2025. Hence, he seeks for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police, submitted that the petitioner, the sole accused in this case.

The injured was admitted to JIPMER hospital and later discharged. Hence, the Government Advocate strongly opposed granting bail to the petitioner.
