2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner joining hands with other accused had taken 3 ½ units of sand.. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is a driver and he has been instructed to transport the sand by the land owner and hence he was not aware of the nature of the sand. Hence, he prays to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and opposed for grant of bail to the petitioner and further submitted that the land belongs to A2.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of the offence committed by the petitioner and taking into account the period of incarceration, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions:
