ORDER

The petitioners herein apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 465, 468, 471 & 420 of IPC in Crime No.444 of 2025, on the file of the respondent Police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The allegation against the petitioners is that these petitioners who are ranked as A1 and A2 and they were studying with the defacto complainant's son and they promised to get a job in the Government College and received a Rs.3,50,000/- and subsequently not arranged any job and not returned any amount. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that, the petitioners are ranked as A1 and A2 studying with the defacto complainant's son and they have not received any money. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the total amount involved in this case is Rs.3,50,000/- and the investigation is pending. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsels on either side and perused the materials available on record.

6. It is seen that, the defacto complainant attempted to get job by illegal means, which is not appreciated. Further, it is revealed that the money is paid to A3 in this case and hence, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions:

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of ten days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned District Munsif Cum Judicial Magistrate Court at Vikravandi on condition that each of the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand Only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the
