2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner is a VAO and while the defacto complainant approached him for surveying his land, the petitioner demanded bribe of Rs.30,000/- and when he received the amount, he was arrested red handed by the trap and he also suspended from service. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case and further the petitioner has been suspended from service. Hence, he prays to grant bail to the petitioner.

4.Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the investigation is pending. Hence, he strongly opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the fact that the petitioner has been suspended from service and taking into account the period of incarceration, this Court is
