2. The case of the prosecution is that, during the temple festival, due to a wordy quarrel between the parties, the petitioner along with other accused abused and attacked the de-facto complainant by using hands and a knife and thereby, caused injuries to him. Hence, the present complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and reported that based on the occurrence, a case and a case in counter have been registered. He further submitted that the petitioner has no bad antecedents. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, and the submissions made by both counsel, and taking note of the fact that the petitioner is not having any previous case, and that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.
