2 The case of the petitioner is that he is a public spirited person and since he has exposed about the illegal activities of many persons, some persons in the locality antagonised against him. Hence the petitioner had preferred a complaint before the second respondent on 11.03.2025 and the same was not registered as FIR and thereby the petitioner had approached the learned Judicial Magistrate-I, Madurantakam, in C.M.P.No.480 of 2025 under Section 175(3) BNSS to direct the second respondent police to register an FIR based on the petitioner's complaint dated 11.03.2025. The learned Magistrate, while dismissing the said petition, vide order dated 20.09.2025, had directed the second respondent to conduct preliminary enquiry. However the respondent police have not conducted any preliminary enquiry and hence the petitioner has approached this Court. Though the learned Magistrate had dismissed the petition filed under Section 175(3) Cr.P.C., by the petitioner, vide order dated 20.09.2025, had directed the respondent police to conduct preliminary enquiry and to act in accordance with law. However, the first respondent has not proceeded further.

3 Per contra, the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police would submit that the order has been passed on 20.09.2025 and subsequent to receipt of the order, the respondent have issued summons twice to the petitioner, however, he did not appear.

4 In view of the above, a direction is issued to the second respondent to serve fresh summons on the petitioner within a week and on receipt of the same, the petitioner shall appear before the second respondent police. On appearance of the petitioner, the second respondent shall conduct preliminary enquiry and proceed further in accordance with law and
