the respondent submitted that though it is a case of consensual relationship, the petitioner administered some intoxicated drinks to the victim and subsequently, he committed sexual assault on her, causing severe injuries.

5. On perusal of the statement of the victim girl and also the materials available on record, this Court is of the view that the nature of the allegations and the modus operandi adopted by the petitioner herein do not warrant grant of bail at this stage. Granting bail may hamper the investigation and further, the petitioner will indulge in similar activities. Hence, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
