3. The petitioner has filed an affidavit and he, along with the second respondent, have filed a Joint Compromise Memo, wherein, it has been stated that the petitioner and the second respondent, have amicably settled the issue between themselves and hence, seek to quash CC.No.1065 of 2023 in Crime No.12 of 2022 pending on the file of the Judicial Magistrate Court I, Alandur.

4. The Inspector of Police, Central Crime Branch, EDF – III, Team 21, Vepery, Chennai, was present before this Court and he informed this Court that the de facto complainant and the petitioner had approached him and informed that since they have amicably settled the dispute between them, they do not want to proceed further with the criminal proceedings.

5. The de facto Complainant was also present before this Court at the time of hearing. This Court enquired the de facto complainant and he stated that they had amicably settled the dispute between themselves and he is not willing to proceed with the criminal proceedings and seeks to quash the same.

6. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing on behalf of the first respondent submitted that though the parties entered into a compromise while this case is pending, this Court, taking into account the seriousness of the offence, has to consider the issue as to whether an offence of this nature can be quashed on the ground of compromise between parties.

7. The main issue that requires the consideration of this Court is as to whether this Court can quash the criminal proceedings involving non-compoundable offences pending against the petitioners. The

Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Parbathbhai Aahir @

Parbathbhai Vs. State of Gujarat reported in 2017 9 SCC 641, has given sufficient guidelines that must be taken into consideration by this Court while exercising its jurisdiction under Section 482 of Cr.P.C, to quash non-compoundable offences. One very important test that has been laid down is that the Court must necessarily examine if the crime in question is purely individual in nature or a crime against the society with overriding public interest. The Hon'ble Supreme Court has held that offences against the society with overriding public interest even if they get settled between the parties, cannot be quashed by this Court.

8. In the present case, the offences in question are purely individual/personal in nature. It involves dispute between the petitioner and the de facto complainant and quashing the proceedings will not affect any overriding public interest in this case and no useful purpose will be served in continuing with the criminal proceedings.

9.In view of the above, this Court is inclined to quash CC.No.1065 of 2023 in Crime No.12 of 2022 pending on the file of the Judicial Magistrate Court I, Alandur, in exercise of its jurisdiction under Section 482 of Cr.P.C.

10. Accordingly, this criminal original petition is disposed of and the case in CC.No.1065 of 2023 in Crime No.12 of 2022 pending on the file of the Judicial Magistrate Court I, Alandur, is quashed on condition that the petitioner shall pay a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) as costs to the Tamil Nadu State Legal Services Authority (TNSLSA), High Court Campus, Chennai 600 104, within a period of two (2) weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. The affidavit and the Joint Compromise Memo filed by the
