Harassment of Women Act in Crime No.440 of 2025, on the file of the respondent Police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, petitioners abused and attacked the defacto complainant and also threatened with dire consequences. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons, and the petitioners have been falsely implicated in this case; and that the custodial interrogation of the petitioners are not necessary in this case and hence, prayed for anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that the petitioners abused and attacked the defacto complainant and also threatened with dire consequences. He would further submit that there is no previous case as against the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsels on either side and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also taking note of the fact that there is no previous case pending against the petitioners,
