2. The case of the prosecution is that, on 23.09.2025, based on secret information, the respondent police intercepted a TATA Sumo bearing Registration No.TN 49 X 4446 and found 26 bags containing 1,300 kilograms of PDS rice being transported illegally. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is the owner of the vehicle and has been falsely implicated in this case solely based on the confession of A2, who is the driver of the vehicle. He further submitted that the petitioner is willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police while opposing the anticipatory bail to the petitioner reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that there are totally 2 accused in this case. The petitioner is ranked as A1. He further submitted that the investigation is still pending.

Crl.O.P.No.29536 of 2025

5. Heard the learned counsels on either side and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the gravity of the offences, and the fact that the petitioner is alleged to have been involved in transporting 1,300 kilograms of PDS rice, this Court is of the considered view that granting anticipatory bail to the petitioner may result in petitioner involve in similar offences hence, it is not a fit case to grant anticipatory bail.

7. Accordingly, this criminal original petition stands dismissed.
