2. The case of the prosecution is that a wordy quarrel arouse between the petitioner and de facto complainant, as a result of which the latter was attacked with hands and sustained injuries. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police per contra submitted that due to previous enmity, quarrel arouse between the petitioner and the de facto complainant as a result of which the de facto complainant was attacked with hands, admitted and discharged from hospital. Hence, opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides, as the de facto complainant has been discharged from the hospital, there is no previous case as against the petitioner, and since custodial interrogation is not required, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned V Metropolitan Magistrate, Egmore on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand Only), with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

[a] the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity;
