2. The allegation against the petitioners is that, due to previous enmity, petitioners along with other accused abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also attacked with knife, due to which, defacto complainant sustained injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays to grant bail to the petitioners.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the injured victim has been discharged from the hospital. He further submitted that, apart from this case, petitioners have no previous case. Hence, he strongly opposed the grant of bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and taking into account the period of incarceration, this Court is
