ORDER
(Order of the Court was made by S.M.Subramaniam J.)

Writ on hand has been instituted challenging notice issued under Section 7 of the Tamil Nadu Land Encroachment Act, 1905 (hereinafter referred to as 'Act').

2. No writ against show-cause notice is maintainable, unless such notice has been issued by an incompetent authority having no jurisdiction or tainted with allegation of malafide.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that explanation along with further documents have already been submitted to competent authority.

4. Such being the factum, competent authority has to consider the explanation along with documents, if any, submitted by petitioner and issue final notice under Section 6 of Act. Thereafter, complete enforcement action under the Act. Any person aggrieved from and out of final notice, may prefer an appeal before the District Collector under Section 10 of the Act.

5. With these observations, the writ petition is dismissed. No costs.

Consequently, the connected miscellaneous petitions, if any, are closed.
