3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that they have been falsely implicated in this case, and they are ready to abide with any conditions.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) raised strong objections to suspend the sentence.

5. This Court finds no reasons to suspend the sentence, as the Trial Court has gone through the evidence in its entirety, and considering the gravity of the offences, this Court is not inclined to suspend the sentences.

6. Accordingly, this Civil Miscellaneous Petition is dismissed.
