2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner was found to be in illegal possession of 66 number of tablets of Aspadol. Hence, the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is in judicial custody from 21.08.2025. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and opposed bail, submitting that the petitioner along with other accused, illegally administered two tablets of Aspadol to the victim in powdered form by syringe. During the act, the needle tip broke and remained lodged in the victim's right hand, causing severe pain, after which the petitioner filed. The victim was admitted to the hospital and later discharged. He further submitted that the petitioner has four previous cases.

5. Earlier, this Court dismissed the bail petitions filed by the petitioner in Crl.OP.Nos.26572 & 28772 of 2025 dated 26.09.2025 & 23.10.2025 on the ground of illness and also considering of previous antecedents. This is the successive bail petition.
