2. The allegation against the petitioner is that due to civil dispute, the petitioner along with other accused attacked the defacto complainant and used filthy language and also threatened with dire consequences. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that, petitioner is innocent person and due to civil dispute, false complaint has been given by the defacto complainant. Thus, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl Side) submitted that, it is a case of case in counter, wherein due to previous enmity, petitioner abused and attacked the defacto complainant and also threatened with dire consequences. He also submitted that, investigation in this case is over, however, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

7. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, submissions made by learned counsels on either side, also considering the fact that the petitioner is being a lady and also the fact that the counter case has been registered by the respondent, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
