The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences under Sections 115(2), 126(2), 138A of BNS @ to 109, 115(2), 118(1), 126(2), 191(2), 191(3), 296(b), 138 of BNS, 2023 in Crime No.233 of 2025, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner joins hands with other accused and abducted the defacto complainant and demanded money which was supposed to be shared by the defacto complainant with the petitioner and other accused, as it was earned from a business they conducted together. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submit that the petitioner is innocent persons and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the co-accused who were arrested have already been released on bail. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the defacto complainant's brother gave a sum of Rs.2 lakhs to A1 to A4 through a share market app, and subsequently, the defacto complainant's brother was kidnapped and asked for the username and password of the share market app. The petitioner is ranked as A7 and accompanied the co-accused who attacked the defacto complainant with a knife. He further submitted that the co-accused who were arrested have already been released on bail. He further submitted that investigation in this case have already been completed. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and that the petitioner on his own volition, is ready to deposit some amount to the credit of the crime number, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

Crl.O.P.No.30817 of 2025
