very much available, this Court cannot entertain this Writ Petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India unless the petitioner makes out a case on the ground of lack of jurisdiction, violation of principles of natural justice, or contravention of statutory provisions. Therefore, this Writ Petition is not maintainable.

4. In the result, this Writ Petition dismissed. However, the petitioner is at liberty to prefer an appeal before the Appellate Authority within a period of two weeks from today. On receipt of such appeal, the Appellate Authority is directed to consider the same, after issuing notice to the petitioner and affording him an opportunity of personal hearing, and to pass orders on merits and in accordance with law, within a period of twelve weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. Consequently, the connected Miscellaneous Petitions are closed. No costs.
