3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that, already there was a dispute regarding the property. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) submitted that, FIR has been registered recently and investigation in this case is pending. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the fact that the Will was said to have been executed some years ago and the allegations are borne out of records and the nature of allegations, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of ten days from the date
