of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The allegation against the petitioner is that when the respondent police were on regular patrol, the accused were found in possession of 96 brandy bottles, each containing 180 ml, intended for sale to the local public for personal gain. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and therefore prayed for grant of bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the petitioner has 14 previous cases. Hence, he vehemently opposed the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
