... Respondents

Prayer: Writ Petition is filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, to issue a Writ of Mandamus directing the first respondent to open the price bid with respect to the work covered in tender notice issued by the first respondent in Tender Notice Number 9999/2025/SS2 dated 22.09.2025.

***

For Petitioner : M/s. Athiniveda

For 1st Respondent : Mr. P.Srinivas

ORDER

The petitioner came forward with this Writ Petition seeking a direction to the first respondent to open the price bid, pursuant to the tender issued on 22.09.2025.

2. Ms. Athiniveda appearing for the petitioner alleged that in the tender, there are two tenderers, namely, the petitioner and the second respondent. She stated that in the technical bid, both of them were found eligible and that the petitioner had given an attractive discount in the price bid to become L-1 in the tender. She stated that as no further progress was made, the present Writ Petition has been filed.

3. Taking notice of the allegations, I directed Mr.P.Srinivas, learned counsel for the first respondent to get instructions.

4. When I took the matter for hearing, Ms.Athiniveda has produced the letter of acceptance, which is scanned and extracted hereunder:-
