The petitioners, who apprehends arrest for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 296(b), 115(2), 118(1), 303(2), 351(2) of BNS, 2023, in Crime No.56 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The allegation against these petitioners is that, due to property dispute these petitioners attacked the defacto complainant by using the wooden log and knife and caused severe injuries. Further they have also taken away Rs.10,000/- in cash from the defacto complainant. Hence this case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for petitioners submitted that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail.

4. The learned counsel for the Intervenor submitted that though injured is discharged from the Government hospital utilize undergo treatment and submitted that this is the second occurrence, earlier occurrence was not registered and it was enquired as C.S.R and opposed to grant bail.

5. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for respondent would submit that the injured discharged from the hospital and the petitioners are not having any previous cases. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6. Considering the submissions made on both sides and on perusal of the records it revealed that on 31.10.2025 these petitioners are attacked the defacto complainant with knife and wooden log and also taken away Rs.10,000/- in cash, though it is stated that the injured has sustained grievous injuries and now discharged from the hospital, the petitioners are not having any previous cases, and this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Katpadi, Vellore District, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.20,000/- (Rupees Twenty Thousand Only), with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:
