2. The petitioners herein are the accused in S.C.No.220 of 2021 on the file of the Mahila Court Fast Track Mahila Court, Vellore, Vellore District. They were found guilty of the offences under Section 498A abd 306 IPC and they have been convicted and sentenced as under:

2	Section 306 of IPC	to undergo rigorous imprisonment for a period of 5 years and to pay fine of Rs.50,000/-, in default to undergo simple imprisonment for 6 months.

Aggrieved by the same, the petitioners have filed this appeal along with the present miscellaneous petition.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners/accused would submit that there are arguable points available in the Criminal Appeal and the petitioners/accused have got a fair chance of succeeding in the Criminal Appeal and hence, the substantive sentence imposed against the petitioners/accused may be suspended. He would submit that the petitioners are ready to abide the condition imposed by this Court.

4. Per contra, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent/State raised serious objection for allowing this petition. Further, he would contend that the evidences recorded from the prosecution witnesses would prove the case of the prosecution beyond reasonable doubt. According to him, interference of this Court is not necessary in the findings arrived at by the trial Court.

4.1. Today, the petitioners paid a sum of Rs.1,50,000/- each to the minor child born to the A1 and deceased through Demand draft in favour of I.Rayya and I. Iorran and the said D.D is handed over to the Maternal grandfather of the minor child, who take care the minor child and the said amount shall be deposited in the account of the minor child in any of the nationalized bank. It is made clear that the amount paid by the petitioners is for the welfare of the minor child and in respect of other relief he is directed to workout the remedy before the appropriate forum as per manner to law.

5. Heard the learned counsel appearing on either side and also perused the materials placed on record.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case coupled with the quantum of punishment imposed upon the petitioners, also by considering the submissions of the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police, further this criminal appeal is not likely to be taken for final hearing in the near future, this Court is of the view that the substantive sentence of imprisonment alone can be suspended on certain conditions.
