2. It is seen from the typed set of papers that the petitioners herein filed a suit seeking partition of 4/8 share and also for other incidental reliefs seeking declaration that the various sale deeds and gift deeds executed by the respondents from 1997 till the date of filing of the suit are null and void. The said plaint was returned by the trial Court on 28.10.2025 raising certain objections.

3. The petitioners re-presented the plaint along with their explanation on 31.10.2025. However, the plaint was again returned on 06.11.2025 stating that the previous return had not been complied with. If the Court is not satisfied with the explanation offered by the petitioners, then the matter ought to be called in open Court. After hearing the petitioners' submission, it shall consider the same and pass appropriate orders on merits. However, in the case on hand the trial Court returned the plaint once again without considering the explanation offered by the petitioners.

4. Therefore, the petitioners are directed to re-present the plaint along with their explanation, including the original explanation dated 28.10.2025 and additional explanation, if any, within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. On receipt of such explanation, the trial Court shall consider the same and number the plaint, if it is satisfied with the explanation offered by the petitioners. On the other hand, if the trial Court is not satisfied with the explanation offered by the petitioners, the matter shall be called in open Court and the petitioners shall be given an opportunity to make their submission.

5. With the above directions, this Civil Revision Petition is disposed of. There shall be no order as to costs.
