ORDER

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 296(B), 115(2), 118(1) and 351(3) of BNS in Crime No.610 of 2025 on the file of the respondent Police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that, on account of previous dispute between the petitioner and the defacto complainant, there was a wordy quarrel; that thereby the petitioner abused the defacto complainant and attacked him using hands and with broken glass, due to which the defacto complainant sustained cut injuries. Hence, this case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case; that on account of previous enmity, the defacto complainant had lodged a false complaint against the petitioner; and that the petitioner is ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court, hence sought for anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent while opposing the anticipatory bail to the petitioner reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the petitioner has no previous antecedents; that the injured discharged from the hospital; and that the investigation of this case is pending.

5. Considering the submissions made on both sides, facts and circumstances of this case, nature of allegation, taking note of the fact that the injured discharged from the hospital, the petitioner has no previous antecedents and since custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not necessary for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned District Munsif Cum Judicial Magistrate at Shozhinganallur on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.15,000/-

(Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

[a] if the petitioner fails to surrender before the concerned Magistrate within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of copy of this order, this Order shall stand automatically cancelled;

[b] the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the Application for Surety ship [Judicial Form No.46 annexed to 'The Criminal Rules of Practice, 2019']. The learned Magistrate shall obtain a copy of any one of the identity proofs to ensure their identity;

[c] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m., for a period of three weeks and thereafter, as and when required for interrogation;

[d] On breach of any of the aforementioned conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to pass appropriate orders against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the aforementioned conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)13
