2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused were involved in transportation and possession of 40 kgs of Ganja in a container lorry and Accused Nos.1 & 2 were arrested on the same day and on the basis of statement recorded from them, it is revealed that petitioner has also conspired to commit the above offences and involved in supporting them. Hence, he was also added as accused. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that only based on confession, this petitioner is added as accused and this petitioner is ready to co-operate for the investigation and prays to grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that, apart from this case, petitioner has one previous case of similar nature and seized contraband herein is commercial quantity, investigation is pending, there are several material evidence available to connect the accused with contraband. Hence, she opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

WEB COPY5. Considering the fact that huge quantity of contraband has been seized from the petitioner and the petitioner is an habitual offender, contraband seized herein is commercial quantity and Section 37 of NDPS Act is applicable to this case and no grounds were made out for satisfying twin conditions of Section 37 of NDPS Act, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
