2. The allegation against the petitioner is that the petitioner is the neighbour of the victim lady, and while she was alone in her house, this petitioner went inside and attempted to commit rape on her. Hence, the complaint was lodged, and the petitioner was arrested and is in judicial custody.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is known to the victim and that the petitioner went inside the house due to a previous acquaintances and it is not a case of attempted rape. He further submitted that the petitioner is in judicial custody since 23.10.2025. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the investigation in this case is pending. However, he opposes to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.

6. Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel on both sides, and taking into account that it is not a case of any physical assault, except for an attempt to pull the hands of the victim, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
