3.It is seen from the records that a decree was already passed and the Official Liquidator was in the process of recovering the decree amount. The notice that was sent to the judgment debtor was returned with an endorsement “left”.

4.Thereafter, steps were taken for bringing the property for sale in order to recover the amount. In that process, the Official Liquidator has availed the services of the valuer to value the property and accordingly, incurred expenses towards the same. Hence, this application is allowed as prayed for.
