2. The case of the prosecution is that the on 14.11.2025, when the de facto complainant attended the Court proceedings in Cr.No.824 of 2020 connected with S.C.No.122 of 2023 to mark his appearance, at that time, A1/Prabhu allegedly demanded the de facto complainant to withdraw the case by convincing his sister and sister's husband. Thereafter, a quarrel arosed and A1 allegedly assaulted the de facto complainant with his hands and an iron rod. The said occurrence was videographed by the petitioner herein. The police officials on duty intervened and rescued the de facto complainant, which led to the registration of the FIR. Hence, the present case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner and the de facto complainant are known to each other and that the de facto complainant himself is an accused in a criminal case. He further submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and that the petitioner is ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Therefore, he prayed for the grant of anticipatory bail.

4. The learned counsel for the intervenor submitted that the occurrence took place inside the Court premises and that the petitioner had brought weapons into the Court campus and assaulted the de facto complainant, causing severe injuries. Hence, he vehemently opposed the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the petitioner has previous criminal cases to his credit. Hence, he vehemently opposed the grant of anticipatory bail.

6. Heard the learned counsel on either side and perused the materials available on record.

7. Considering the manner in which the occurrence took place, particularly the allegation that the petitioner, along with A1, entered the Court premises with weapons and was involved in the incident during Court hours, and that the same was video graphed by him, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner .

Crl.OP.No.33781 of 2025
