ORDER

Aggrieved by the belated payment of PF, gratuity and earned leave salary, the petitioners have come up with this Writ petition seeking interest at the rate of 12% per annum, for the said delay caused on the part of the respondent.

2. In view of the consent expressed by the learned counsel on either side, this Writ petition is taken up for final disposal at the admission stage itself.

3. When the matter is taken up for hearing, the learned counsel for the petitioners brought to the notice of this Court, the order passed by the Co-ordinate Bench of this Court in a similar matter in W.P.No.25610 of 2024 dated 03.09.2024, wherein this Court had directed the respondent to pay interest at the rate of 6% p.a. for the belated payment of terminal benefits to the Petitioners therein within a period of six (6) weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of the order.

W.P.No.49142 of 2025

4. Learned standing counsel appearing for the respondent did not dispute the above submission made by the learned counsel for the Petitioners.

5. This Court perused the order passed in W.P.No.25610 of 2024, wherein, this Court has held as under :-

“5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the grievance expressed by the Petitioners, there shall be a direction to the respondent to pay interest at the rate of 6% p.a. for the belated payment of terminal benefits to the Petitioners within a period of six (6) weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. It is made clear that if the amount is not paid within the time frame fixed by this Court, it will fetch interest at the rate of 12% p.a. from the date on which the amount became due and payable till the date of actual realisation.”

6. The aforesaid decision is squarely applicable to the facts of the present case. Accordingly, applying the ratio laid down in the above case, this Writ petition stands disposed of with a direction to the respondent to pay interest at the rate of 6% p.a. for the belated payment of PF, gratuity and earned leave salary amount to the petitioners within a period of eight (8)
