2. The case of the prosecution is that on 04.12.2025, the defacto complainant and her sister were travelling in a UBER car at Periyapanichery, while so the two unknown persons came in a two wheeler and trying to dash a car and suddenly, A1 stopped the car and abused the defacto complainant and the driver of the car in filthy language and also caused damage to the car. Hence, the present case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that this petitioner being a friend of A1, he has been implicated in this case and the injured has been discharged from the hospital. He further submitted that he is ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this court and hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police, reiterated the prosecution case and reported that the the injured discharged from the hospital and the petitioner is having no previous case. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the fact that the injured discharged from the hospital and no previous cases reported, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions:
