ORDER

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 303(2) of BNSS (Corresponding Section of 379 of IPC) in connection with the Cr. No.205 of 2025, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on the date of alleged occurrence, petitioner illegally transported about 6 units of Mixer Jilly and M-sand in a tipper lorry without any valid license. Hence the case.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that petitioner is innocent person, and he has been falsely implicated by the respondent police and he is no way connected with the offences as alleged by the prosecution and hence he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that on the date of the alleged occurrence, petitioner illegally transported about 6 units of Mixer Jelly and M-sand in a tipper lorry without any valid license. He further submitted that the contraband and the vehicle used by the petitioner to transport the contraband were seized by the respondent police and that the petitioner has no previous case, pending against him. However, he strongly objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the representation made by both side counsel, nature of offence, and the alleged contraband has been seized by the respondent police and that no previous cases are pending against petitioner, and also considering all other factors, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions.
