3.Considering the seriousness of the offence and the nature of information and the fact that in a well orchestrated manner the revenue records has been tampered, which is of almost 100 years old. It needs deep and thorough investigation and collection of documents and submission of the same for forensic examination is required. In view of the same, this Court finds that the reason given by the petitioner is reasonable. Further this Court is of the view that putting a time line and curtailing the investigation would only be deterrent for fair investigation. Hence, this Court is inclined to extend the time.

4.Accordingly, this Criminal Miscellaneous Petition is ordered and further period of nine months is granted for filing the final report.
