The petitioner, who apprehends arrest for the alleged offence under Sections 69, 296(b), 351(2) of BNS in Cr.No.50 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The allegation against the petitioner is that he is arrayed as A1 and he made promise to marry the victim girl aged about 22years, had sexual relationship and subsequently refused to marry her. It is further alleged that the petitioner's family members and others threatened the defacto complainant with dire consequence, which led to the registration of the FIR. Hence, the present case.

Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the investigation is still pending. Hence, he vehemently opposed the grant of anticipatory bail.

6. Considering the nature of allegations and the facts and circumstances of the case and the age of the victim, I am of the view that the custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not necessary in this case and inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain
