2. The case of the prosecution is that due a land dispute, on the date of alleged occurrence, the petitioner along with her husband, abused the defacto complainant in a filthy language and assaulted him with helmet, and threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, the case.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that petitioner is innocent person, and he has been falsely implicated by the respondent police and he is no way connected with the offences as alleged by the prosecution and hence he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that the petitioner along with her husband, abused the defacto complainant in a filthy language and assaulted him with helmet robes and threatened him with dire consequences and a civil dispute is pending among the parties in O.S.No.79/2025 before the Sub Court, Pollachi and that the petitioner has no previous case, pending against him. However, he strongly objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for both sides, the nature of alleged offences, and the fact that no prior criminal cases are pending against the petitioner, and further considering that custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not necessary in a case of this nature, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-II, Pollachi on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.20,000/- (Rupees Twenty Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:
